

Registered Investment Advisory & Retirement Plan Services

Reedmark Advisors, LLC is an SEC-registered investment advisory firm. In 2024, Reedmark became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Solenture, LLC, and today every Reedmark advisor is a W-2 employee of Solenture. There is no separate firm to coordinate with — clients work with one integrated team, whether the relationship started with a retirement plan, a business transition, or a personal wealth conversation.

Founded in 1972 by Anthony Pascazio during the early years of ERISA, Reedmark built its reputation as a subject matter expert in qualified retirement plan design and fiduciary compliance. Over five decades, that expertise grew into a full personal wealth and investment advisory practice — the foundation Reedmark brings to the Solenture relationship today.
